To whom it may concern,

Matthias started working at the The Speight's Ale House back in March 2023. He came to us looking for work over the winter. Being a hard worker, Matthias has shown a great sense of initiative, reliability and efficiency. He has never hesitated to work long hours or pick up extra shifts as and when needed.

He was in charge of the bar which includes serving customers, insuring the cleanness of the bar area, restocking and creating new cocktail specials each month. His creative side was a bonus for the creation of new cocktails. He took his role very seriously and was a valuable and respected member of the team.

It has been an absolute pleasure to work with Matthias and I would highly recommend anyone to hire him as he would be an amazing addition to your team.

Yours faithfully
